Jordan RPCV Sheds Light on Iraqi Refugees

Jordan is at the center of worldwide attention as refugees pour into Jordan due to the conflict in Iraq. Aysha Ghadiali (J5) is currently working with PBS on the series Wide Angle which will feature Jordan in an upcoming episode. "Iraqi Exodus" will focus on the Iraqi refugees living in Jordan and Syria and will feature an interview with HRH Queen Noor of Jordan.

"Iraqi Exodus" premieres on PBS on August 19th. Check your local PBS affiliate for show times. For more information, visit: <http://www.pbs.org/wnet/wideangle/episodes/iraqi-exodus/introduction/811/>

Summer 2008

More Peace Corps

MorePeaceCorps Sweeps the Nation

The NPCA recently launched a new endeavor to gain support to increase the Peace Corps in the coming years. MorePeaceCorps is an awareness and support campaign aimed at supporting legislation to double PC size and budget by 2011. Rajeev Goyal (Nepal 01 - 03) is spearheading this national campaign.

"MPC is aimed at reducing barriers to participation, respond to demands from countries requesting PC presence and those who wish to serve."

For more information about MorePeaceCorps, visit their new website at www.morepeacecorps.org.
